Issue 10

Dear Parents, Caregivers and Community Members,

It is very hard to believe that we are about to hit the halfway point of our school year! It has been an extremely busy and productive 2 terms.

We are currently finalising midyear reports for all students which will be ready to go home on Friday. I encourage everyone to take the time to carefully read the reports, celebrate successes, and discuss the goals and next steps for further development. We should all be proud of what we have been able to achieve as a collective over the first half of the year. I know I am!

Big Day In

A reminder to everyone that this Thursday is our end of term Big Day In. The Big Day In is a celebration, rewarding positive behaviour and respect for teaching and learning throughout the term. During the day, students will participate in a number of fun and engaging activities that will be run by staff members. We will also be providing a free lunch for everyone, which will be hotdogs.

Tea on Friday night

A big reminder to everyone that we are cooking tea on Friday night. Every dollar we make on the night will be going towards supporting Liam and his family as he continues his battle with cancer. You can also come and check out our new catering trailer! We are looking forward to seeing everyone there.

Have a relaxing break!

As we draw to the close of term 2, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all students, staff, parents and the community for your support. We are a great team which makes for a great school! I look forward to working with you all again in a positive way next term!

See you next term! 😊

Dealing with a crisis

A crisis can arrive in our lives when we are facing a difficult or dangerous situation. Crises can affect an individual, family or the whole community.

In a crisis, children need to feel safe and know that there is someone who they can rely on. They have similar feelings to adults, and often show their distress in actions rather than words. Children can learn about coping from how they see their parents dealing with a crisis.

What is a crisis?

In a crisis there is an event involving change as well a loss. It could be a loss through death or separation, the loss of health through illness or accident, or the loss of something such as a house or job. Sometimes we are affected by the fear of loss or change.

People respond differently when faced with a crisis. We can feel confused, powerless or unable to cope as a result of a crisis for the following reasons:

- Have never been in the situation before
- Find it difficult to cope with these types of situations
- Feel tired, worn out or like they're failing

How to know when someone is in crisis?

- Physical - pounding heart, rapid breathing, looking flushed, vomiting
- Thinking - confused, lack of concentration, can't make decisions, memory loss
- Emotional - anxiety, mood swings, agitation, panic, helplessness
- Behaviour - broken sleep, challenging behaviour, sudden outbursts of anger

Getting help

If you are worried about yourself or your children, seek help early. It may be useful to talk to people who you trust that you are having issues and help them understand any changes in your children's behaviour, which can lead to additional and other external supports.

If you are struggling yourself, it may be useful to seek help from your counsellor or other health professional. If you feel like you can't give the help and support that your children need, find someone else to help them.
